Q.57 Now I'm going to read you some pairs of statements made by Democratic and Republican candidates for Congress. As I read each pair, please tell me whether the FIRST statement or the SECOND statement comes closer to your own views, even if neither is exactly right.

[506 Respondents]

58 The Democratic candidate says, we have important needs as a country and must renew our economy. We should cancel most of the massive tax cuts scheduled for next year. Almost half of the money goes to those earning over three hundred seventy five thousand dollars a year, which is irresponsible in these times. By canceling these massive tax cuts for the wealthiest, we can continue to cut middle-class taxes, restore the Social Security trust fund and support other needs, including prescription drugs, education, and improved domestic security.

The Republican candidate says, we need to revitalize our economy, which requires putting money back in the hands of individuals and business investors. We must maintain our planned tax cuts and make further tax cuts that will stimulate the economy and expand investment. To achieve that, we need to restrain and cut federal government spending, while continuing to meet our commitment to Social Security and to fund our education and domestic security initiatives.
