38 (SPLIT E) George W. Bush says the tax cuts passed last year were designed to strengthen our economy for years to come. People and small businesses should be able to keep more of their hard-earned money, but some politicians say we can't have the tax cut go through any more. That's a tax raise and increasing your taxes will hurt the recovery. Under no circumstances should they be allowed to raise your taxes.	34	25	20	16	5	58	36

39 (SPLIT F) A Republican leader says the tax cuts passed last year were designed to strengthen our economy for years to come. People and small businesses should be able to keep more of their hard-earned money, but some politicians say we can't have the tax cut go through any more. That's a tax raise and increasing your taxes will hurt the recovery. Under no circumstances should they be allowed to raise your taxes.	31	28	21	15	5	59	36
40 A Democratic leader says a lot has changed. We've increased spending for our military and domestic security. Our surpluses have become deficits. So, we should act responsibly and delay the tax cuts for those earning over $130,000. Nobody will pay higher taxes. This will lower the federal deficits and help the economy and give us the needed money for Social Security, education and prescription drugs..... (ref:BDGTSTMTS)	37	29	13	18	3	65	34

Q.41 Let me read you some things the Democrats say will happen if the tax cuts take place as scheduled over the next few years. Please tell me which TWO concern you the most.
