Q.31 As you may have heard, there have been recent transgressions committed by Republican Congressman Duke Cunningham and lobbyist Jack Abramoff, but Republicans say these crimes have been condemned by Republican leaders and are not a reflection of the party itself. Democrats in Congress have ties to Abramoff as well and two years ago a Democratic Congressman was sent to jail on ten corruption charges. When the Democrats controlled Congress in the early 90's they were convicted of trading mail vouchers for cash and the Democratic speaker of the house resigned due to ethics violations.

Recent disclosures about Congressional transgressions show that it is just business as usual in Congress and not very different from the past. How much truth do you think there is in this statement - a great deal of truth, a fair amount of truth, not very much truth, or no truth at all?
