The Democratic candidate says, Republicans have failed to enforce our immigration laws. On their watch, millions of illegal immigrants have entered the U.S., and Republicans have voted against more border agents and voted to protect employers who hire illegal immigrants. Democrats say, it's time to secure our borders, enforce our existing immigration laws, and enact new laws to keep America secure.

OR

The Republican candidate says, Democrats in Congress want to give illegal immigrants all the rights of American citizens, including access to American health care and Social Security benefits. The Democratic candidate says, in order to secure our borders, Bush and the Republicans are going to build a fence along the Mexico border. But the fence won't keep illegal immigrants out, and it will waste billions of dollars that could be spent on education and health care. Democrats say, we need to secure the border by adding more agents to patrol - not by wasting taxpayers' money.

The Republican candidate says, Democrats in Congress want to give illegal immigrants all the rights of American citizens, including access to American health care and Social Security benefits. Q.65 (SPLIT G) Now let me read a few more statements from two candidates for Congress. After I read them, please tell me which statement comes closest to your own view, even if neither is exactly right.

The Democratic candidate says, in order to secure our borders, Bush and the Republicans are going to build a fence along the Mexico border. But the fence won't stretch across the whole border, and there will be holes where illegal immigrants can still sneak in. Democrats say, we need to secure our borders by adding more enforcement at the border and enforcing our existing laws.

OR

The Republican candidate says, Democrats in Congress want to give illegal immigrants all the rights of American citizens, including access to American health care and Social Security benefits. Q.66 Now let me read you statements from two candidates for Congress. After I read them, please tell me which statement comes closest to your own view, even if neither is exactly right.

Democrats say, the Bush administration must level with the American people about the war in Iraq so we can chart a new course and start to bring our troops home. The first step to improving the situation in Iraq is knowing the facts about the war. Instead of releasing select pieces of information from the National Intelligence Estimate, it is time for President Bush to release the full information so America can have an honest assessment of the impact that the war is having on our national security.

OR

Republicans say that Democratic demands to release classified information for political purposes would weaken our security by giving our secrets to our enemies. There are people out there trying to kill us and we have to do everything we can to stop them. The Democrats have become the party of 'cut and run', and it is too risky to entrust with our national security. If we back down from Iraq and stop fighting the terrorists over there, we will soon have to fight them over here.
