69 (SPLIT E) George Bush rushed to put 100 hundred thousand U.S. soldiers into the middle of Iraq, without international support and without a plan to achieve peace afterwards. Now, things are deteriorating. John Kerry says, the United States cannot leave Iraq in a mess, but we need a whole new approach to the world if we are to win more support and share the burden in Iraq. Kerry says he'll prioritize rebuilding our alliances, winning respect for America again and insisting all countries pick up the burden for our collective security.	29	13	9	26	22	1	42	51

70 (SPLIT F) The violence, attacks on U.S. forces, soldiers killed and areas under insurgent-control are now growing every month, but George Bush says, "Our strategy is working" and "Iraq is on the road to democracy." That is a very big difference. John Kerry says, we have to be honest with the American people and recognize this Iraq policy is not succeeding. If you can't see what's happening, you can't fix it and our troops deserve a plan for success.....	28	15	9	27	20	2	43	51

71 (SPLIT E) George Bush has misled the American people on Iraq, on weapons of mass destruction, and why we went to war. He ignored the generals on the need for more troops, he said costs would be low, but they're now over 200 billion. He won't tell the real cost until after the election. Now, Bush refuses to release intelligence reports that show the deteriorating situation. John Kerry says he'll begin by being honest with the American people - the best way to unite our country before these threats.36 12 6 21 24 2 47 53

[508 Respondents]

72 (SPLIT F) George Bush rushed into Iraq alone, but that has made us less secure. Violence is growing and terrorists operate out of more areas. The conflict has multiplied hatred of America around the world, helping the terrorists. He diverted resources from Afghanistan and getting Al Qaeda, and our military reserves are badly stretched. And he's neglected bigger threats from WMDs in North Korea and Iran. John Kerry says, we need a whole new approach to the world, where we prioritize rebuilding our alliances, winning respect for America again and insisting all countries pick up the burden for our collective security.35 16 8 22 20 1 50 58

73 (SPLIT E) George Bush has thumbed his nose at the world. He withdrew from treaties on the environment and nuclear testing. After 9-11, he said no thanks to NATO on ground forces in Afghanistan. He went to Iraq alone. The result is we have a target on our back in Iraq and are carrying 90 percent of the cost. John Kerry says we face all kinds of serious threats, including terrorism, rogue states and loose nukes. On every one of those problems, we would be more secure if we led strong alliances and created a new compact for freedom and security.
	33	11	9	22	24	2	44	53

[509 Respondents]
74 (SPLIT E) George Bush's priority is Iraq, where he has run up bills of 200 billion dollars, with much more to come. John Kerry says, we can't cut and run in Iraq, but his mistakes have shortchanged America. We must have the will and resources to create good jobs in America, get health care costs down and reduce the deficit and protect Social Security.
	36	12	6	25	20	1	48	54

[508 Respondents]
75 (SPLIT F) 200 billion dollars. That is what we're spending in Iraq because George Bush chose to go it alone. Now President Bush says we don't have the resources to take care of education and health care here at home. John Kerry says, that is wrong. As president, I'll stop at nothing to get the terrorists before us. But I'll also fight for a stronger middle class. That is the difference in this election. I believe the next president must do both - defend America and fight for the middle class.

Q.76 Now let me read you some things that George Bush is saying about John Kerry on Iraq. For each statement, please tell me whether this description, if accurate, raises very serious doubts, serious doubts, minor doubts or no real doubts in your own mind about John Kerry.

	Very Ser Dbts	Ser Dbts	Minor Dbts	No Real Dbts	DK/ Ref	Total Ser	Total Not Ser
76 John Kerry's flip-flops and constantly changing position on Iraq show that he lacks President Bush's commitment to do whatever it takes to protect our country. Kerry voted against the first war in Iraq, then voted for this war but turned around and voted against funding for body armor and ammunition for our troops on the ground in Iraq. If Kerry had been in charge, Saddam Hussein would still be in power, defying international law, torturing the Iraqi people, and providing support for terrorists throughout the world.	26	23	16	33	2	49	49
77 We need strong, consistent leadership during these times of great change for America. But John Kerry would take our country in very dangerous new direction. His record is clear: he consistently voted to cut funding for our military and intelligence agencies. He opposed funding for our troops in Iraq and voted against funding for needed weapons systems. After the first attack on the World Trade Center, Kerry tried to cut 6 billion dollars in funding from our intelligence agencies and was absent for more than three quarters of hearings while serving on the Senate Intelligence Committee.
