62 Kerry says, a strong country starts with a strong middle class. I will stand up for the middle class by cutting middle class taxes, keeping jobs here in America, making health care more affordable and protecting Social Security.	53	18	9	9	9	2	71	80
63 Kerry says, I believe in an America that is strong at home and respected in the world. We can have a strong economy focused on good paying jobs, a health care plan that reduces costs, and a strong military and alliances that can keep us safe and secure.	51	19	10	11	9	2	69	79
64 Kerry says, our nation's diversity is our greatest strength. By working together and combining our diverse experiences and viewpoints we can reach our common goals and help America achieve its full potential.	46	19	12	11	9	3	65	76
65 Kerry says, I believe in a 100-percent America, where everyone has a chance for a better life, not just the privileged few. Everyone deserves an opportunity for education, to care for their families, affordable health care, and a secure retirement. (ref:SUPKER)	56	17	8	10	8	1	73	81

68 (SPLIT A) Kerry says, those at the very top of the ladder may be doing well economically, but Hispanics, like most middle class and working Americans, are not doing as well. The average Hispanic family makes 25 percent less than the rest of the country, unemployment among Hispanics is 25 percent higher than the rest of the country, and one in five Hispanics live in poverty. It's time for change and a President who will fight for equal opportunity for all Americans.....	54	16	7	11	11	2	70	77
[500 Respondents]
70 (SPLIT C) Kerry says, President Bush's go-it-alone foreign policy has placed the burden of rebuilding Iraq on the shoulders of American taxpayers, with a total bill of over 125 billion dollars so far. We need a President who will lead international alliances abroad so we can have the resources to prioritize America at home and work together to tackle the problems with our economy, health care costs, education, and retirement.	50	15	11	12	10	2	65	76
[500 Respondents]
71 (SPLIT A) Kerry says, as a veteran of Vietnam, I will do everything necessary to protect our country, and I honor all our veterans and those Hispanics who are serving our country in the armed forces with valor and dignity. Instead of Bush's go-it-alone foreign policy that leaves us paying almost the entire cost in Iraq, in both lives and dollars, I will work with our allies to build alliances that protect our interests and strengthen us against terrorist threats.....	58	14	9	8	10	1	72	81

72 (SPLIT A) Kerry says, the Hispanic community is a powerful voice for change in America, 25 million people strong and growing, and it is time for a president who pays more attention to the problems facing Hispanics. I have a proven record of support for the Hispanic community and I will appoint Hispanics to top positions in a Kerry administration.	54	18	8	9	9	2	72	80
[500 Respondents]
73 (SPLIT B) Kerry says, I believe in an America that embraces equal opportunity and this is why we need to change the direction George Bush is taking our country. As president, I will give a 4,000 dollar tax credit for each year's college tuition and work to promote the growth of small businesses because we should support Americans who want the opportunities to make a better life for their families.....	52	14	9	9	12	2	67	76
[500 Respondents]
74 (SPLIT D) Kerry says, President Bush's failure to work with allies and plan for post-war Iraq has cost the lives of nearly 1,000 American soldiers. As American taxpayers foot the 125 billion dollar bill in Iraq, the Bush administration granted no-bid contracts to Dick Cheney's old company Halliburton, which then overcharged the military. As President, I will put an end to these abuses and work to ease our burden in Iraq so we can concentrate on addressing America's problems at home. (ref:KERPOL)	52	15	6	11	13	4	66	73

Q.75 Now, let me read you a series of statements by George Bush. After each statement please tell me whether this would make you much more likely, somewhat more likely, a little more likely, no more likely, or less likely to support George Bush in this year's election.

76 (SPLIT E) Bush says, despite war, recession, and terrorist attacks, our economy is once again strong and growing stronger. We've created nearly one and a half million jobs in just the last ten months, and Hispanic -owned businesses are among the fastest growing sectors in states across the country.20 18 14 18 27 4 38 51

[500 Respondents]

77 (SPLIT F) Bush says, Hispanics still have a long way to go in achieving economic security, but we have taken major steps in the right direction over the past four years. Incomes are rising for the average Hispanic family, college enrollment is up for Hispanics by 38 percent, and there are more educational and career opportunities, as well as more Hispanic -owned businesses than ever before. I am committed to continuing to provide new jobs and economic opportunities for the Hispanic community.26 18 12 19 22 3 44 56

78 Bush says, education is a top priority of my presidency because every child in America, regardless of race or economic level, deserves a high quality education. I increased funding for education to the highest levels in history and passed bi-partisan education reform that increases accountability for schools and teachers while giving parents the opportunity to choose a new school if their child's school fails to meet the right standards.....29 19 10 16 23 2 48 58

79 Bush says, we have made unprecedented efforts to build new bridges of trade and understanding between the U.S. and Latin America. I have also worked closely with Vicente Fox to strengthen the bond between Mexico and the United States, trying to raise the quality of life for the people in both countries, and my sweeping immigration proposals provide more opportunity for immigrants looking for work and a better way of life.	22	19	12	19	26	2	40	52
80 Bush says, I am proud of the unprecedented role Hispanics have played in my administration. From high-level appointments in my Cabinet to the U.S. military to federal judgeships and my own personal legal counsel, Hispanics now occupy more positions of power than ever before.	24	16	16	18	24	3	40	55
81 Bush says, America is a great country because of our commitment to family and our strong faith. I have fought to restore honor and dignity to the White House and to provide steady leadership during these times of change. But John Kerry wants to take our country in a different direction and turns his back on our traditional values. Kerry's support for abortion has put him in conflict with the Catholic Church, and he refuses to stand up for the sanctity of the American family as his state becomes the first in the nation to legalize gay marriage. His values reflect the wrong priorities for this country. (ref:SUPPBUSH)	27	11	11	17	30	4	39	50
